

Group Contract

Group 4

March 2022

Goals

The group will prioritize creating an awesome map above getting the best grade. The group wants to learn as much as possible.

Organisation of work

The group meets Wednesday and Friday at some time around 10. We delegate tasks for people to make between meetings and also write down these tasks in a logbook. We start each meeting with a scrum session.

Some tasks are done together, while some are done by an individual member. This depends on what is best suited for the task.

When someone has finished a feature, they should briefly present to the others how it works. Furthermore another person should look through and review the code, to provide feedback.

If the group realizes that it is behind schedule, it is expected that all members try to bring it back on schedule as best as possible (by allocating more time to this course). This ties into how many hours the group expects to spend on this project, since the group wants to spend an amount of hours equivalent to how much work is to be done on a given week.

Everybody should be open to feedback.

Roles

- Release Manager: Albert
- Scrum Master: Rotating between everyone alphabetically.
- Logbook Scribe: Rotating between everyone alphabetically.
